Every man wants a living for himself and family, a home, a congenial task or business, security and a chance. Spiritual and intellectual growth, opportunities for the amenities of social life, the opportunity to be helpful and to accomplish, by his having lived, something creditable and honorable that will live after him. Some or all of these desires of a good man can be satisfied by membership in the Scottish Rite and the observance of its practices and principles.

The Scottish Rite is a rite of instruction. It interprets the symbols and allegories of Masonry in the light of history and philosophy, using the words of the supreme prophets of humanity, ceremonials of the great religions of the world and significant episodes from human history. It is the foe of intolerance, bigotry and ignorance.

The Bakersfield Bodies by excellent work, deep devotion and generous friendliness will open its doors to the discerning Master Mason who seeks light, inspiration, uplift and happiness.

The Symbolic or "Blue" Degrees are the foundation upon which the great superstructure of Masonic Knowledge and light is erected.

In the twenty-nine degrees of the Scottish Rite this structure, allegorically speaking, arises, takes form and substance and through its inspiring constructive philosophy enables the initiate to more fully comprehend the great moral teachings of Freemasonry.

They interpret his moral obligations, they help him to apply to his daily life the virtues they have imparted to him, and they give him a wealth of spiritual understanding and enlightenment that cannot be obtained elsewhere than in the Scottish Rite.

William F. Laird 32°
Almoner, Bakersfield Bodies

WHAT IS THE ALMONER ?

The Almoners fund is created and maintained by the contributions of each member of the Rite and dispensed by the Almoner of the Bodies who is elected by his brethren. The fund is used for fraternal assistance in helping the widow and orphan, the destitute and physically handicapped of all creeds and color.

Expenditures are not limited as to the scope or service rendered, it may be clothing or fuel or groceries, or it might be an artificial limb, a pair of glasses or a glass eye.

Into the homes of every faith this fund has brought help and comfort through the generous support of an unseen hand whose membership in this Valley bids him respond, so that the Almoner may be able to help, whenever, wherever, and in whatever way he can.

The recipient is never aware of the source of aid, and all of this for a good reason, Scottish Rite dimes and dollars have for many years been doing a fraternal charity, and the world knows not of the bringing at least a ray of hope to some cheerless but worthy soul.

Maintaining the Almoners fund is a duty of each member of the Rite. The emphasis is on each, for when attending meetings, no brother is expected to leave without making his contribution. If he is present at the meetings, he will hear the injunction regarding it, which is in no way embarrassing to him. If a Brother is unable to attend the regular meetings, he should not withhold his contributions.

Many Brethren, unable to attend regularly, have not overlooked this important Masonic Duty.

RELATION TO BLUE LODGE MASONRY

The Scottish Rite is based upon Blue Lodge Masonry. It does not confer the first three degrees. This is recognized as the unquestioned prerogative of the Symbolic Lodges. The Scottish Rite confers only degrees from the fourth to the thirty-second inclusive.

When a Master Mason advances to the higher degrees of the Rite, it does not detract from, but adds to his interest in everything for which the Blue Lodge stands. It deepens his appreciation of it, and motivates him to more active participation in its affairs. He cannot fail to see the intimate relation between the two, and far from losing interest or diminishing his appreciation he actually gains in both. The Scottish Rite aids, supplements and reinforces the Blue Lodge in every way. As organizations these bodies are mutually dependent and strengthen each other with reciprocity.

The Scottish Rite is a rite of enlightenment. Its purpose is to spread the light of Masonry truth by revealing and explaining matters concealed or only hinted at in Craft Masonry. Knowledge is power, and Scottish Rite seeks to arm its votaries with moral and spiritual understanding.

THE SCOTTISH RITE CREED

The cause of human progress in our cause, the enfranchisement of human thought our supreme wish, the freedom of human conscience our mission, and the guarantee of equal rights to all people everywhere the end of our contention.

Although the Degrees of the Scottish Rite are divided into four separate sections, and are presented by four different Bodies, yet in the main they are all a part of the same system of philosophy, and to be fully understood and appreciated should be considered as a whole.

Every Degree of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite, from the fourth to the Thirty-second, teaches by its ceremonial as well as by its instruction, that the noblest purpose of life and the highest duty of man are to strive incessantly and vigorously to win the mastery of everything of that which in him is spiritual and divine, over that which is material and sensual, so that in him also as in the universe which God governs, Harmony and Beauty may be the results of just equilibrium.
